Four years ago, she nervously left her family at an airport 2,400 miles away. Today, Arielle Cowie is a four-time The Ohio State University scholar-athlete and three-time Academic All-Big Ten Conference selection. And most important to the Ohio State University Field Hockey midfielder, on the verge of becoming an #OSUgrad.

155 to receive degrees in Ohio Stadium

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Sunday, 155 current and former Ohio State student-athletes received their degrees at spring semester commencement at Ohio Stadium. The ceremony, which begins at noon, will be streamed online: http://commencement.osu.edu/

Among the graduates are national champions, Big Ten Medal of Honor winners and All-Americans.

Chelsea Aton is a four-year letterwinner on the Ohio State synchronized swimming team. The Noblesville, Ind., native has excelled in every aspect of being a student-athlete at Ohio State. Academically, Aton is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten, two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, three-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete and was named to the U.S. Collegiate Academic Team in 2012 and 2013. Athletically, the U.S. Collegiate All-American led the Buckeyes to two overall U.S. Collegiate Championship titles (2011-12), three North Regional Championships (2011-13) and two U.S. Senior National Championship titles.

Claire-Louise Bode was a member of the 2013 NCAA Champion rowing team, rowing in the First Varsity Eight Boat. She was named the 2013 Big Ten Rowing Athlete of the Year and the Ohio State Athlete of the Year after picking up Pocock First Team All-America, CRCA First Team All-Central Region and First Team All-Big Ten honors. Bode won gold at the 2013 Big Ten Championships and bronze at 2013 NCAA Championships as stroke seat of the First Varsity Eight.

Aaron Craft, the 2014 National Defensive Player of the Year and First Team Senior CLASS Award All-American, finished an illustrious career both as a student and athlete in 2014. The Findlay, Ohio, native personalized success, class and determination during his collegiate career. A three-time Academic All-American, Craft set Ohio State and Big Ten records in leading the Buckeyes to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, two regular season conference titles and one Ohio State senior class record of 119 career wins. In both the Ohio State and Big Ten record books, Craft sits atop the career steals list with 337 while owning the Buckeye record for assists with 694, which is fifth all-time in conference history.

A native of Brunswick, Ohio, senior Allison Eiber is a four-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete, three-time Academic All-Big Ten and Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. A team captain, Eiber set program history as part of the first women’s team at Ohio State to win an NCAA Championship. As a member of the first varsity eights, Eiber won a bronze medal at the 2013 NCAA Championships and a cold medal at the
